What’s the difference between a bright future and a bleak one?

A chance for a great education.

The Rhode Island General Assembly is considering a bill that could expand school choice and improve education in Rhode Island. For too long unions have stood in the way of a brighter future for our children. But with the lowest graduation rate in New England, Rhode Island can and must do better.

Support School Choice for all Rhode Island Families!